TALLAHASSEE, Fla./EWORLDWIRE/Oct. 19, 2012 --- Florida Women are rallying behind Mitt Romney in this year's presidential election. Grassroots groups of local Tallahassee women are hosting a rally at the capital for women across the state of Florida to show their support for Romney.

Through social networking, this event has spread and continues to grow. The Florida Women for Romney Capital Rally will be held on Oct. 20, 2012, 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m, on the steps of the state capitol. Families, women, and men are welcome to attend.

The traditionally blue city will be seeing red for this event.

Guest speakers include:

- State Senator Nancy Collins- the 6th Dist. of Mississippi
- Beatriz Maciá - President of Tallahassee Tea Party & Romney Panhandle Regional Chair for Tea Parties
- Melisa Taylor- Wakulla County School Board District 2
- John Stemberger - President of the Florida Family Policy Council
- Burgess Owens - Former NFL player and recently named to Romney's Black Leadership Advisory Council
- U.S Representative Steve Southerland FL District 2

Ann Mitchell, chair for the rally, commented, "I love that I live in the capital of Florida and would like to see women inspired not only our state but other swing states, to prominently display their support for Mitt Romney as the next President of the United States."

Mitchell continues to rally more support not only throughout Florida but enliven women from other states to not let the media or President Obama define them.
