FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE 2ND ANNUAL MV AWARD SHOW

MOMENTUM^{mv} Magazine, the Neo-African lifestyle magazine has done it again! The 2nd Annual Award show to be held on Sunday, June 13th at the grand Tawes Theater, University of Maryland in College Park promises to be a blockbuster event.

The show will be honoring the acclaimed pioneer of the African Magazine industry, Chief Dele Momodu of Ovation International Magazine-the African celebrity publication. Other African businesses, non-profit organizations, artistes, and students will be honored for their individual and collective effort in improving the image of Nigerian immigrants.

We promise a night filled with tasteful and exciting entertainment and have performances by Award winning UK Afro pop artist JJC and 419 Squad, crossover Gospel artist Sammie Okposo from Nigeria, the intriguing acapella group The 7 Ambassadors, world renown fashion designer Nigerian Fabrics and Fashion (NFF). Nollywood filmmaker, Chico Ejiro's latest movie True Romance and American based Ashajumedia Movie productions N.I.N.E will also have their trailers shown.

About MOMENTUM^{mv} Magazine

Momentum MV magazine has been in circulation for over 1 year and has gained popularity among a diverse audience including Nigerians, other Africans and African-Americans. MV Magazine is family oriented entertainment & lifestyle magazine. It focuses on the positive achievements of individuals of African descent, bridges the gap between Africans and African Americans, and projects a positive image of African countries. We provide our readers with health education, entertainment, consumer empowerment, and financial advice. Our goal is to uplift our culture, provide role models to the youth, and help our readers utilize all resources available to them in the US for self improvement.
