

Heartland Holdings Inc. Management Drives Company On Path Of Accelerated Growth

Heartland Eyes Potential Targets For Future Acquisition Opportunities

For Immediate Release

PLYMOUTH, Minn./EWORLDWIRE/April 5, 2005 --- Following a sales increase for fiscal year 2004 that reflects an over 1,000 percent sales increase and total sales at over $49 million, Heartland Holdings' (OTCBB:HTLJ) management is eyeing the market for additional companies to add to its diverse portfolio.

"Heartland's recent growth is remarkable and reflects the conviction of its management team to build a winning group of profitable companies," Heartland's CEO Trent Sommerville said.

The increases Heartland experienced are attributable primarily to the acquisitions of Evans Columbus, Karkela Construction and Monarch Homes. Sales at the company's other subsidiary, Mound Technologies and its subsidiaries, increased in the fiscal year ending December 31, 2004 by 67 percent to $7,389,064 from $4,428,836 in the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003.
