

Sitestar Purchases Netrover, Inc.

Company Gains Presence in Canada and Expands Customer Base

For Immediate Release

LYNCHBURG, Va./EWorldWire/Jan. 9, 2006 --- Sitestar Corporation (OTCBB: SYTE), a provider of residential and business Internet access and value-added computer services, today announced that it has purchased Canadian-based Netrover, Inc. Sitestar gains over 7,000 customers including dial-up and Digital Subscriber Line (DSL) Internet subscribers, web hosting and other business accounts.

The Netrover acquisition builds upon the company's business strategy which focuses on aggressively growing the Sitestar customer base across North America. Recent initiatives have also included the purchase of residential Internet subscribers from Idacomm and an expanded DSL coverage area in the western part of the United States.

"The acquisition of Netrover bolsters both the financial and business position of Sitestar," said Daniel A. Judd, CFO for Sitestar. "Netrover is profitable, strengthens our balance sheet and increases our customer base and presence in North America."

"The Netrover purchase further expands the Sitestar service footprint and opens Canada as a new market for our services," said Frank R. Erhartic, Jr., CEO for Sitestar. "Sitestar is poised to continue its growth in 2006 as we continue to increase customers, revenue and shareholder value. We welcome Netrover's customers and staff to Sitestar."

Sitestar plans to maintain a physical presence in Canada using Netrover staff. The integration of customers to Sitestar will be transparent to existing subscribers. This transaction was consummated effective January 1, 2006.
