Politicianads.com: Lyndon Baines Johnson (LBJ) To Reenter Political Arena

For Immediate Release

ANACORTES, Wash./EWORLDWIRE/Jan. 30, 2006 --- LB Johnson is alive and well on a small island in Washington state, not Washington D.C. His forty year plus motivation is simple: the "American Dream."

With a name like Lyndon B. Johnson, a political avenue was inevitable. After recently losing his job due to downsizing, he was forced to figure out a way to pursue his political aspirations and stay afloat financially at the same time - hence his political web page politicianads.com. It's the first of its kind on the web targeting politics by way of the new pixel advertising phenomenon.

Politicianads.com provides a venue for all types of political themed advertising. With elections around the corner and the increasingly heated political climate, it is the perfect time and place to be heard.

All political parties and opinions are welcome - left and right-wingers, donkeys, elephants and political parties across the world.
