

Software Industry Veterans Join Revation Board Of Directors

New Board of Directors Sees Growing opportunities For Presence And Secure Messaging

For Immediate Release

MINNEAPOLIS/EWORLDWIRE/March 6, 2006 --- Revation Systems, Inc, a leading provider of advanced applications for presence and secure messaging, today announced the addition of Ken Holec and Paul Knapp to its leadership team and Board of Directors. The two software veterans will play key roles as Revation looks to grow the company's existing market opportunities.

Holec will serve as Chairman of the Board and also take a key role in business development activity for the company. With more than 25 years in the technology industry, Holec is an advisor to Triple Tree, an Investment banking firm and is on the board of several technology companies. Previously, Holec was an Interim CEO of Peopleclick, a Software-as-a Service (SaaS) vendor, and president and CEO of ShowCase Corporation. He was also President and CEO of Lawson Software, leading the rapid growth and development of the company from $10M to becoming a leading brand in the ERP industry.

"Revation's opportunities are almost unlimited," said Holec. "When you look at Revation's approach to integration and security, they are well positioned to partner with a wide variety of software companies that focus on vertical markets. Replicating Revation's leadership position with eCommerce providers to banks will be key in 2006."

Knapp will serve as Chairman of Finance and take an active role in managing the company finances, and working with investors. Knapp is President and CEO of Space Center Ventures, Inc. He is a Director of Bloomington, Minnesota-based Venture Bank and served, on the boards of more than a dozen public and private companies. Knapp served as the 2002 President of the Minnesota Venture Capital Association and the 2002-2003 Chairman of the St. Paul Midway Chamber of Commerce. He is an active member of The Guthrie Theater Board of Directors. He is a 1982 graduate of The College of St. Thomas and a 1985 graduate of William Mitchell College of Law.

"I've seen hundreds of technology companies and Revation really stands out," said Knapp. "The company grew significantly in 2005, exponentially increased its sales funnel and established several great 'go-to-market' partnerships."
