

National United Freedom Alliance

“Celebrating the American Culture!”

PHOTO AVAILABLE: Black Group, National United Freedom Alliance, Offers Racial Forgiveness

To move forward as a nation, accomplished author and motivational speaker Mason Weaver is countering the concept other black Americans are proponents of - that of making reparations to blacks for slavery.

For Immediate Release

SAN DIEGO/EWORLDWIRE/Dec. 11, 2006 --- While in the Navy, a racist shipmate tried to kill Mason Weaver by dropping 2,800 pounds of metal on him. In the midst of anger and even hatred, Mason found The Power of Forgiveness, took control of his life and learned how to achieve - he penned "The Certificate of Forgiveness" and is taking stronger action in communicating its availability to the public and the media.

"At 21-years old and permanently disabled, I did not sit back and complain about 'The White Man done done me wrong' - I took action to retrain myself to compete and rise up in America," said Mason Weaver.

'The Certificate of Forgiveness' reads in part, 'Now Therefore I, Mason Weaver, president of 'The National United Freedom Alliance,' being found to be a descendent of the aforementioned Black African slaves, do hereby, by the authority of my ancestry, certify that all guilt, shame, and debt (real or imagined) of _____, found to be a descendent of white Europeans, is hereby forever forgiven and forgotten.'"

The Certificate of Forgiveness is designed to alleviate white guilt and black anger. According to Weaver, there are only two responses to past discrimination:

- One is the demand for payment or reparations
- The second is to forgive the debt

Weaver says, "Do not confuse forgiveness with surrender - this is not a docile action. It is a powerful action. We are not saying surrender because they are too powerful. We are saying forgive because they are not powerful enough to keep you down. There is no racial reconciliation without racial forgiveness. There is no real racial reconciliation until you have unconditional forgiveness."

Mason points to other conflicts around the world as examples. Some have sought revenge for hundreds of years and progress as a society has been hindered. However, countries that fight battles, then come to terms with and then trade with each other, prosper. The failure to forgive stunts the growth of civilizations as well as families.

"Racial differences provide the same conditions as war. Our nation moved on after the Revolutionary War, Civil War and WWII - but some people are still fighting the Civil War and cannot forgive. They have been stunted in their growth. Parts of black and white America are paralyzed with anger and frustration. The rest of America is heading for success; others are still debating an apology - it's time to forgive and take our place in the American culture."

The Certificate of Forgiveness can be downloaded from the organizations Web site at www.nationalunitedfreedomalliance.com.

About Mason Weaver

Noted for his quick wit, vigorous debate and forceful oratory, Weaver is a challenge to opponents and an instructive persuasive counselor to allies.

Mason Weaver changes the way people think about how they do business, leading them to learn self-respect and self-worth. His motivational speeches to audiences nationwide communicate his messages of hope for the future and empower individuals with the tools they need to become the driving forces for positive change.

His own personal struggles drove him to success - past military service interrupted by devastating injury and classification as disabled. Weaver took action and subsequently obtained degrees from Merritt College in Oakland California and U.C. Berkeley. After a career that included a rapid rise within the U.S. Department of Energy, negotiating multi-million dollar government contracts with major contractors including TRW, General Dynamics, and General Electric, Weaver resigned to become an entrepreneur, forming a private consulting company in 1980 to assist businesses in obtaining and administering government contracts.

Over the last 15 years, Mason's drive has led him to host a live call-in radio program in southern California - producing, writing and researching - along with writing a weekly column on social and political issues.

Author of "It's OK to Leave the Plantation," "The Rope" and "Diamond in the Rough," Weaver discusses worldwide social issues.

Along with the organization Web site at www.nationalunitedfreedomalliance.com and his personal site at www.masonweaver.com/, video clips are available for preview at <http://www.nationalunitedfreedomalliance.com/media.html>. Mason Weaver may be reached at 760-758-7448.

HTML: <http://www.eworldwire.com/pressreleases/16065>

MOBILE: <http://e4mobile.com/pressreleases/16065>

PDF: <http://www.eworldwire.com/pdf/16065.pdf>

ONLINE NEWSROOM: <http://www.eworldwire.com/newsroom/310946.htm>

LOGO: <http://www.eworldwire.com/newsroom/310946.htm>

CONTACT:

Mason Weaver
National United Freedom Alliance
PO Box 33451
San Diego, CA 92163
PHONE. 760-758-7448
URL. www.nationalunitedfreedomalliance.com
URL. www.masonweaver.com/

KEYWORDS: American Culture, Forgiveness, New Underground Railroad, Mason Weaver, Mason Weaver, National United Freedom Alliance

SOURCE: National United Freedom Alliance

AVAILABLE MEDIA: : Black Group, National United Freedom Alliance, Offers Racial Forgiveness (size: 0.1 k)

To move forward as a nation, accomplished author and motivational speaker Mason Weaver is countering the concept other black Americans are proponents of - that of making reparations to blacks for slavery.

<http://eworldwire.com//mediauploads/certificate-head-shots-006.jpg>