Bavayou Films Wins Accolade Competition

A powerful documentary film about living abroad

For Immediate Release

SANTA MONICA, Calif./EWorldWire/June 22, 2007 --- Andre Enzensberger of Bavayou Films has won a prestigious Honorable Mention from the Accolade Competition. The award was given for Andre Enzensberger's exciting feature documentary, "Ralf & Johnny," which portrays the alternative lifestyle of an American expatriate living in Germany and a German expatriate living in America. "Ralf & Johnny" features exceptional visuals and sound, which support the very original nature and story of this documentary.

"Winning the Accolade Competition means a lot to me!" says Andre Enzensberger, the director of the film. "I am excited for people to see this picture at film festivals and learn about two extraordinary characters who experience the ups and downs of the expat existence."

The Accolade recognizes film, television and video professionals who demonstrate exceptional achievement in craft and creativity, and those who produce standout entertainment or contribute to profound social change. Entries are judged by highly qualified professionals in the film and television industry.

In winning an Accolade, Bavayou Films joins the ranks of other high-profile winners of this internationally respected award.
