For Immediate Release

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla./EWorldWire/Sep. 26, 2007 --- John J. Alquist's article topic categories include: leadership, management, e-commerce, health and fitness, entrepreneurialism, nutrition, branding, management, home based business, alternative medicine, marketing, spirituality, movies & TV, news and society, book reviews, supplements, change management, future concepts, attraction, anti-aging, success, careers and employment, politics, economics, business, holidays, business management, business, Internet and business.

Online visitors produced more than 14,573 page views of John's articles at EzineArticles.com in the last two years.

"Do Vegetarians Live Longer," is his most popular article with 974 views. Other alternative topics have done well, too, including "Suicide By Fork - Death By Pills - Is there A Better Way?" and "Can Co-Q-10 Be Used To Lower Blood Pressure?"

Self-employment articles do very well. "Free Agent Nationâ€”The Way To Work in the 21st Century"â€”leads in this category.

Alquist's articles are snapped up by others. Many people have "reprinted" Alquist's articles on their blogs, conforming to EzineArticles.com reuse policy, requiring that resused articles provide attribution to the author and his/her contact information.

Expanded distribution of John's articles helps to build the Alquist Enterprises brand, increasing awareness of John's writings, professional services, as well as national and international distribution businesses owned by John and his wife, Shirley S. Alquist.

More than 67,000 authors post articles at EzineArticles.com. There are millions of visits to that site each month. Only seven percent of authors at EzineArticles.com, including Alquist, have attained Platinum Author statusâ€”more than 10 articles approved for publication and being approved to submit an unlimited numbers of articles for approval in the future.

EzineArticles.com publicizes articles using RSS feeds, updated daily, to its lists of media and many other possible article users.

John's first published writing was at age 15 in a Connecticut daily newspaper. After graduation from college, John was a feature and news writer for a weekly Newspaper for three years.

Next, he experienced an outstanding 24-year corporate marketing career, including all kinds of business, marketing, advertising and public relations writing. He held senior level marketing positions in large banking organizationsâ€”Wells Fargo and Barclays. He has been self-employed for the last 20 years as a professional speaker, writer/author and business consultant.

John and his wife, Shirley, also operate two network marketing distributorshipsâ€”AMSOIL (national) and Xango (international).

He is a strong advocate of globalism, self-employment and Internet business proficiency and a champion of 21st Century business. Learn more at <http://www.tell-it-well.com>
