Media Advisory

NOVATO, Calif./EWorldWire/Sep. 25, 2009 --- Based in Northern California, Bay Docs Inc. announces the launch of Web-Based Origination Tools for reverse mortgage lenders and brokers. The web-based application will enable their customers to order reverse mortgage application and closing documents which will include the required statutory forms along with calculation forms: instant quote comparison, print screen, amortization schedule, TALC and the closed end truth in lending document. The tools will be completely customizable for the lenders and will enable users the ability to choose from the variety of reverse mortgage products.

"Having been in the reverse mortgage industry for over 15 years, we recognized the need for loan officers to be able to compile application packages, complete with the calculations, and submit those completed packages to the investor they chose," states Megen Lawler, President and CEO of Bay Docs, Inc. "We are happy to provide loan officers with this new and highly affordable option."

Bay Docs Inc. will continue to tailor its ordering system to enable ANYLOS system, whether they support forward or reverse mortgage platforms, to feed directly to their automated document retrieval system.

Bay Docs Inc., a document preparation company dedicated solely to the reverse mortgage industry, has been providing quality service since 1994. Bay Docs offers customers compliance, legal and technology services coupled with industry experience that can't be found anywhere else.
