

RS Electronics Named One of Michigan's Top Workplaces

Detroit Free Press Names RS Electronics One of Michigan's Top Workplaces

For Immediate Release

LIVONIA, Mich./EWORLDWIRE/Oct. 27, 2009 --- RS Electronics ('<http://www.rselectronics.com>'), a Michigan-based wholesale distributor of electronic components, test and measurement instruments, and manufacturing supply-chain services, has been recognized as one of the Top Workplaces in Michigan by the Detroit Free Press.

To determine the Top Workplaces in Michigan, the Detroit Free Press partnered with WorkplaceDynamics, an industry leader in conducting workplace surveys. Top Workplaces lists are based entirely on the opinions of employees, provided through confidential employee surveys. This year, WorkplaceDynamics drew responses from over 32,000 employees from companies throughout southeast Michigan. Companies were evaluated by size: up to 150 employees; 151 - 500 employees; and 500+ employees.

"For RS to be recognized in this way and during these difficult economic times is an indication of the unselfishness and quality of our people. I'm very fortunate to have a group of employees who conduct our business with the highest levels of integrity and teamwork and who provide exceptional value to our customers and suppliers," said Howard Taxe, president.

Nationally, WorkplaceDynamics has surveyed over 1000 companies since being established in 2006. The company is based in Exton, Pa.

Founded in 1929, RS Electronics is recognized as one of the largest and most successful electronics distributors in North America by leading trade publications. Over the years, the company has earned local, regional, and national recognition for human resources practices and employee satisfaction. Customers include businesses, educational institutions, and government agencies--among them many of the world's largest and most successful organizations.
