

Nov. 20: Controversy Aights Over Twilight New Moon and Vampirism With Occult Researcher/Expert and Author Steve Wohlberg

Media Advisory

NEWPORT, Wash./EWORLDWIRE/Nov. 13, 2009 --- When the next Twilight film, New Moon, sinks its bloody fangs into global fans Nov. 20, best-selling author of 23 books Steve Wohlberg won't be touting its moral benefits to teens. In fact, Wohlberg's take on the movie is quite the contrary, because of rampant links to the dark and dangerous worlds of occultism and vampirism.

Wohlberg realizes that many parents and teens consider Stephenie Meyer's tantalizing sequence of vampire romances to be wholesome fare because the Edward Cullen character is so noble, and he and Bella Swan wait until after marriage to have sex, yet his concerns are that hidden perils are intertwined with Twilight's "morality," and that Hollywood is fueling a mesmerizing and addictive, bloody phenomenon.

"Twilight is laced with occultism," Wohlberg adamantly warns. "Even the vegetarian vampires crave blood; the Cullens are members of The Olympic Coven, Edward reads minds and has supernatural powers, and shape shifting is showcased. It is these very activities - or the promise of them - that are now luring countless teenagers into the dark and dangerous world of real occultism."

The author's newest book, "The Darkness of Twilight: Hidden Perils Behind Today's Vampire Craze" (Remnant Publications, 2009) counters Twilight fever and exposes exploding interest in real vampirism.

"The Washington Post ran a piece entitled, 'A Vampire's Life: It's Really Draining,' in the immediate wake of the first Twilight movie (released Nov. 21, 2008)," said Wohlberg. "ABC News fueled the fire with its own Oct. 31 article provocatively called, 'Real Life Vampires: Who Are They?'"

"Is anyone really paying attention to or taking a stand against this real-life, blood-sucking trend?"

In "The Darkness of Twilight," Wohlberg sounds a sensible warning to teens and adults. "Don't be bitten by vampirism!" is his sober challenge.

About Steve Wohlberg

Wohlberg is the speaker/director of White Horse Media (Newport, Wash.) (<http://www.WhiteHorseMedia.com>). TV producer, radio host, occult researcher, and apocalyptic expert, he is the author of 23 books, including "End Time Delusions: The Rapture, the Antichrist, Israel and the End of the World" (Destiny Image, 2009, hardcover), and "Demons in Disguise: The Dangers of talking to the Dead" (Destiny Image, 2007). Wohlberg has been featured on The History Channel documentaries, "Secrets of the Seven Seals" (Oct. 21, 2009) and "Strange Rituals: Apocalypse" (Nov. 14, 2009), has been cited in The Washington Post, and has spoken by special invitation inside the Pentagon and U.S. Senate. He has been a guest on over 500 radio and television shows including CNN Radio, USA Radio Network, American Family Radio, and Information Radio Network. He currently lives in Priest River, Idaho, with his wife, Kristin, and their two children, Seth and Abigail.

MEDIA: To arrange for an on-camera interview or review copy of Wohlberg's new book, contact Steve Wohlberg at (559) 977-9744 (mobile) or e-mail steve@whitehorsemedia.com.

HTML: <http://www.eworldwire.com/pressreleases/211357>

MOBILE: <http://e4mobile.com/pressreleases/211357>

PDF: <http://www.eworldwire.com/pdf/211357.pdf>

ONLINE NEWSROOM: <http://www.eworldwire.com/newsroom/315277.htm>

LOGO: <http://www.eworldwire.com/newsroom/315277.htm>

CONTACT:

Steve Wohlberg
White Horse Media
PO Box 1139
Newport, WA 99156
PHONE. 559-977-9744

KEYWORDS: Bible Expert, Religion Expert, Christianity, Book of Revelation, Seminar Speaker, Christian, religion, end of the world, teens' risky behavior, vampire, vampirism, occult, Twilight New Moon

SOURCE: White Horse Media