Spanish Language Press Releases At NewsBlaze

NewsBlaze LLC teams up with Eworldwire to publish Spanish language press releases.

For Immediate Release

FOLSOM, Calif./EWorldWire/July 19, 2006 --- NewsBlaze LLC and Eworldwire today announced their expanded collaborative support of the Hispanic news market.

As a result of this expansion, these two companies join the increasing number of U.S. businesses catering to the Hispanic market. At the same time, Hispanic-owned businesses in South America are entering the United States market and are discovering the power of publicity.

A major reason behind this increased collaboration is that Hispanic promotion is expanding for both NewsBlaze and Eworldwire, as more and more Hispanics in the U.S. and South America are gaining access to the internet.

NewsBlaze and Eworldwire in the future plan to continue to expand their collaborative support for Hispanic businesses, Hispanic journalists, journalists interested in the Hispanic market - and Hispanics themselves.
