

Dec. 19: First Virtual Conference For The Online Dating Industry To Be Held At IDate2007

Pre-Conference virtual event is free for all delegates

For Immediate Release

NEW YORK/EWORLDWIRE/Dec. 11, 2007 --- Ticonderoga Ventures, Inc. announces the first-ever virtual trade show for the Internet dating industry. The virtual event will take place online at 'http://www.iDate2007.com' on December 19, 2007 from 8:00 a.m. EST to 8:00 p.m. EST.

The one-day, December 19 virtual event will be free to all industry professionals. Attending will be executives from the following business: Online Dating, Venture Capital, Software, Mobile Telecom, Marketing, Matchmaking, Social Networking, Payment Processing, Affiliate Programs, Affiliates, and others. Pringo Networks will be the software provider of the live virtual event.

The virtual event will allow senior executives in the online dating industry to conduct real-time interactive chat with each other. This includes video chat, which is one of the more dynamic ways people can interact in a B2B environment. The virtual event allows industry professionals that are unable to attend physical Internet dating conferences a business networking opportunity.

The virtual Internet expo was designed to complement the physical Internet Dating Conference (iDate 2008), held January 31 to February 1, 2008 at the Miami Beach Convention Center. iDate2008 has evolved to become the definitive business event for the industry, It covers new technologies, management, business models and advanced marketing methods best suited for a online dating business.

The December 19 virtual event will allow delegates to identify new business and schedule meetings prior to their attendance at the Miami convention. As executives in this industry are extremely busy, a free one-day only virtual conference was selected to streamline their schedule at the Miami event.

The event will be powered by Pringo Networks robust and scaleable platform. Pringo's executive team has extensive leadership in the social networking industry.
