Dirty Harry Film Spoof Hits Third Bull's Eye at Film Fests

For Immediate Release

LOS ANGELES/EWORLDWIRE/Sep. 15, 2009 --- Magnum Farce: A Shot in the Park" - the computer animated parody of "Dirty Harry" films - won the "Best Animation" Audience Choice Award at the 2009 Cinema City International Film Festival - the third top prize at the third festival showing of Bella Fe Film's flagship project. In addition the short received an "Award of Merit" from The Indie Fest, 2009 in the animation category.

Earlier this year, the film won "Best Animated Short" at the 2009 Indie Gathering International Film Festival and "Best Spoof" at 2009 Action On Film International Film.

"Magnum Farce" is the creation of Ken Mora who plans to establish Bella Fe Films as "The Pixar of Rated R" by bringing studio-quality animation to the mature film audience of the "Scary Movie" franchise, "Meet The Spartans" and "Epic Movie."

The feature-length screenplay "Magnum Farce" also won its fourth top competition award at the 2009 20/20 International Screenplay Competition, having won "Best Comedy Script" at The Indie Gathering, "Best Screenplay" at San Fernando Valley International Film Festival , and "Second Runner-Up" at Beverly Hills International Film Festival.

"Magnum Farce" followers number thousands across FunnyOrDie.com, Facebook, Myspace, and Twitter, boosted by fans of cult superstar Will Keenan [Terror Firmer, Tromeo and Juliet, Operation Midnight Climax] who voices Detective Gay, Anime and Gaming megastar Kyle Hebert [Dragonball Z, Naruto, Bleach] as The Sniper, and Matt Godecker [Screw Cupid, All-In, F-Stops] as Magnum-Wielding Detective Dick Hardon.
