Mr. Science Teacher Announces Online Tutoring Services and Tutor Opportunities

Tutoring, online classes and homework help website provide fun, effective instruction in physics, chemistry and math. Science professionals seeking income opportunities as tutors are encouraged to apply.

For Immediate Release

EFFINGHAM, Ill./EWorldWire/Oct. 27, 2012 --- Matthew Poston, also known as "Mr. Science Teacher," announces online tutoring services, a personalized system that provides students with the opportunity for out-of-the-classroom discussion and interaction.

Mr. Science Teacher's tutoring service is affordable, with 50-minute tutoring rates at $29.99. All tutoring is online via Skype(TM) and a digital whiteboard, 1:1 private tutoring in the home. A Facebook "Like" captures 15% off.

Mr. Science Teacher is the perfect educational resource for students using any public school or home-school science curriculum.

Poston goes on to explain, "Students lead busy lives with varying degrees of hectic schedules. I want students to understand how easy science and math can be and enjoy the pleasure of success!"

Online classes at <http://www.mrscienceteacher.com> are $329.99 during the fall-spring school year. With Mr. Science Teacher, the positive influence that excellence in instruction brings to a student and his family will last a lifetime.

Homework help is directly available 24 hours a day on the website by clicking "Get Your Homework Questions Answered Now!" Students can ask three questions per week for $9.99, and up to ten questions per week for $24.99.

With over 20 years of teaching experience, Matthew Poston is licensed by the Illinois State Board of Education to teach physics, chemistry and math, which he delivers along with other essential components of successful teaching: enthusiasm, personality and effective communication. One of the highlights of Poston's teaching method is that he teaches in a language that students can understand. "I believe students need to acquire problem-solving skills and think analytically," says Poston. "Many students who are reserved in class ask excellent questions in smaller settings and thus, learn much more."

With a leading tagline of "Mr. Science Teacher - The Best Way to Get an A!" Poston has made it clear to students and parents that his main focus is to provide fun and effective instruction for everyone who wants it. "I want to help you excel!" he exclaims. "I greatly value the instruction I received while in college and feel strongly about providing quality education to current and future students."

The website also has a referral program. "When visitors become members after being referred to the site by another member, the referrers are sent free gifts or coupons," adds the teacher.

Educators may have found the best online teaching job, as Mr. Science Teacher offers tutors the opportunity to help students all over the country - without ever leaving home or office. Mr. Science Teacher connects tutors to students online. As teachers help others, they earn extra money in a flexible scheduling environment. All tutors are required to be cleared by a nationwide criminal background check, a sexual predator check, and social security verification. Tutors are paid weekly.
